

Loss Prevention Scope of Services

McGriff, Seibels & Williams, Inc. provides complete loss prevention services for your workers' compensation program. The following list describes some of the loss prevention services available.

- ◆ Consultation services encompassing areas of workers' compensation, liability, property, health and safety, regulatory agencies, and process controls
- ◆ Evaluate losses and make program recommendations to address frequency and severity of claims
- ◆ Review of loss analysis reports and causes of loss
- ◆ Consult with claims adjusters and monitor loss trends
- ◆ Provide updated information on rules, regulations and requirements
- ◆ Review and assist in developing risk management policies and Best Practices
- ◆ Perform loss prevention site inspections and reports
- ◆ Develop specialized training programs
- ◆ Consult with supervisors regarding exposures and losses
- ◆ Develop and train loss prevention safety committees
- ◆ Participate in meetings—disseminate information
- ◆ Workstation and ergonomic evaluations
- ◆ Accident investigation
- ◆ Recordkeeping and compliance (OSHA, EPA, HR, etc.)
- ◆ Onsite district training classes (drivers, supervisory, affirmative defense, etc.)